The School District of Palm Beach County Partners in Education (PIE) Program is an enterprising initiative that allows businesses and community organizations to support public education in Palm Beach County. H.L. Johnson Elementary is always seeking new Partners in Education to support the school and students. There are varying levels of sponsorship opportunities available. Sponsors are needed for various school activities, student incentives, faculty appreciation gifts, clubs, etc. Please see our list of available Business Partnership Sponsorship Opportunities, or offer a suggestion of your own that may benefit H.L. Johnson Elementary School.
